

Master of Statistics

MStat

1-year full-time or 2-year part-time

- Offers advanced statistical training in principle and practice
- Equips hands-on application of statistical methodologies with powerful software
- Offers three themes of interest (Risk Management / Data Analytics / Financial Statistics), with a selection of electives from the Department's research postgraduate programme
- Prepares students for further study in academic, research, consulting work and administration in various fields

Statistics

Spatial Data Analysis

Advanced Knowledge

Social Network

Time Series Forecasting

Blockchain Data Analytics

Practical Skills

Algorithmic Trading

Professional Views

Admission Deadline

Main Round: 12:00 noon (GMT +8), November 20, 2023

Clearing Round: 12:00 noon (GMT +8), January 8, 2024

Apply now for entry
in September 2024

Admission Requirements

- Bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification with knowledge of matrices and calculus, introductory statistics and linear modelling.
- Applicants shall fulfil the University Entrance Requirements.

Application

Course details can be retrieved from

<https://saasweb.hku.hk/programme/mstat-structure.php>

Online Application

<https://admissions.hku.hk/tpg/>

Enquiries:

