

External Dependence Structures and Bounds of Tail Value-at-Risk

Abstract:

In quantitative risk management, we often need to deal with risk aggregation with dependence uncertainty. In this session, we examine several extremal positive and negative dependence structures. We will also discuss their relationships with upper and lower bounds of concave distortion risk measures of aggregate risks.